

Central Intelligence Agency
Office of the Deputy Director for Intelligence

7 Feb 95

To: [redacted]
From : [redacted]
Issue: [redacted] Decompartmentation.

Attached are the briefing memo to the DCI (currently with the O/DDI): the attachement thereto; a draft cable for possible transmission to the DDCI; a short "does and doesn't" on the CIA position. (The point of the last is that we are not denying the DOD any intelligence information [redacted])

[redacted] We only want to keep selected film, photos, prints or reproductions in TK channels. We remain unconvinced that every military command needs every photograph taken [redacted]

I will be out this afternoon.
Questions can be handled by [redacted]

J&J has final version of DDI position

Central Intelligence Agency
Office of the Deputy Director for Intelligence

CIA Position [] Decompartmentation

- o Applies only to imagery (film, prints, vugraphs, etc.)
 - o Does not impede the decompartmentation and dissemination of the intelligence derived [] at the SECRET level.
 - o Does not affect data bases, communications or dissemination [] intelligence information.
 - o Does restrict the dissemination of some imagery (that taken from beyond [])
 - o Does mean that every single textual readout may not be backed up by a SECRET level photo.
 - o Does prohibit the SECRET level publication of the fact that the intelligence []
- [] (DoD agrees with this restriction.)

Page Denied

Next 7 Page(s) In Document Denied